MEDICINAL.

Dyspepsia AND Liver Disease CURED BY DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

"I was weak, nervous and dizzy, with a fainting sensation when walking," writes Jesse Childress, Esq., of Samuel, Sullivan & Co., Tenn. "Could not walk any distance, always felt bad after eating; felt as though something was sticking in my throat, always uneasiness in stomach. Doctored with three physicians but they did not relieve me. I grew worse and used everything I could think of; was nearly ready to give up and then some one told me that Dr. Pierce's medicine was good, so I began taking his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken seven bottles of that now and am as stout as ever, and enjoying health as much as ever before. I worked all summer and this winter as much as any one. My case was liver disease and nervous dyspepsia of which your medicine has cured me. In September I weighed 125 lbs. and now I weigh 160 lbs. I am a happy man. Please accept my sincere thanks."

BISHOP DUNCAN'S ADVICE.—Bishop Duncan, of South Carolina, at the meeting in Richmond yesterday of the Virginia Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, advised young preachers, in effect, to jilt their sweethearts unless they were Methodist girls. His address was exceptionally interesting and his chief theme was unwise unions. The Bishop declared that many ministers made the mistake of their lives by unwise marriages. A case in point was that of a young minister in California, who wanted to leave and go to another State to marry a girl with whom he was in love. "There were as good girls in California," said the Bishop, "and nothing was in the way for him to break off from the other, but he had to pull up his stakes and move. He had a fancy for her, and so he went. If this young man had put his trust in God and not appealed to his own inclination the Almighty would have graciously guided him and he would have married a first-class Methodist girl instead of coming back wedded to one of another faith. At the same time, he would have remained at his work. As it is, he has laid the foundation for unknown trouble and vexation. The girl may make him a first-class wife, but the odds are against her. The problem before this young minister is one confronting many others. I could tell you of a town, the streets of which I walked the other day, and in which the leaders of the church parties and the wine parties are sons and daughters of a Methodist minister. Oh, brethren, we cannot fight like that against the devil!" Such things, the Bishop indicated, came of unwise marriages, the serious results of which among ministers were emphasized time and again.

DEFORMED GIRL SENTENCED.—Nina K. Danforth, the deformed Framingham girl, pleaded guilty in Cambridge, Mass., yesterday to manslaughter in causing the death of Andrew J. Emery, whom she shot and killed at his home in South Framingham on May 17 last. It was claimed that Emery had led the young woman to believe that he was in love with her and would marry her, and that she shot him upon learning that he had a wife and children. She was sentenced to serve a year and nine months in the Cambridge House of Correction. The prisoner heard the sentence without apparent emotion. Mrs. Emery, the widow of the man who was killed, who occupied a seat in the witness box, burst into tears. Few cases in Massachusetts have attracted more attention than this one. Miss Danforth, a child in appearance because of her deformity, though twenty-three years old, upon learning of Emery's faithlessness, went to his home at midnight, and while his wife and four children were in the house, shot him, after having called him to the door. He fell dead almost in the arms of his wife, who had followed him down the stairs. For months the lawyers in the case have been considering how proceedings should be conducted, for it was claimed, on account of Miss Danforth's physical condition, as well as for her mental suffering, it was doubtful if a jury would sustain a charge of murder. The matter was not decided until yesterday, when the lawyers came to an agreement that a plea of guilty of manslaughter should be entered and that it should be accepted by the prosecution.

INCENDIARY SHOT.—Recently the town of Edgfield, S. C., has suffered from several incendiary fires. The citizens became greatly alarmed, and in mass-meeting authorized the mayor to appoint patrols to help the police to guard the town. On Tuesday night Maj. R. S. Anderson and two other citizens posted themselves near the McCollough store building, now the property of ex-Governor Sheppard. About midnight creeping figures were seen approaching the building. Then a match was struck, inflammable material lighted and applied. The firebugs were withdrawing when Anderson challenged them. They ran, and the patrols fired. One man fell mortally wounded. The prisoner proved to be a negro, Richard Bostick. He is in jail and has implicated several others in a plot to burn the town for purposes of robbery. Bloodhounds were put upon the tracks yesterday morning, and the other incendiaries are being closely pursued. There was some talk of lynching the wounded man, but the best citizens successfully opposed such proceeding. If the other negroes are caught they may not be permitted to come to trial. The town of Camden, eighty miles from Edgfield, is suffering from numerous incendiary fires.

REQUESTS ITALIAN INTERVENTION.—According to the Rome Tribuna, Italy purposes to make an international matter of the arrest in Boston, Mass., of Mascagni. The Tribuna says: "Mascagni has telegraphed Premier Zanardelli, requesting the intervention of the Italian government to protect him from the vexatious treatment of which he says he has been a victim in America. Signor Zanardelli replied to the musician, assuring him of the interest taken in his case by the government, and informing him that he would request Signor Prinetti, minister of foreign affairs, to take up the matter. Signor Prinetti immediately took up Mascagni's case." Signor Prinetti is awaiting the receipt of a report from the Italian Embassy at Washington before acting in the affair. United States Ambassador Meyer has not been asked for an explanation, although he dined with members of the foreign office last night. The charge of apathy brought by Mascagni against the Italian consul at Boston is regarded in Rome as without justification and an outcome of the musician's ignorance of the fact that an Italian in the United States is entirely subject to American laws.

Jumped on a Ten-Penny Nail.
The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and one nail was thrust entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Portland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

A Thanksgiving Dinner.
Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, expose the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally catarrh of the stomach. Koolid relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Koolid cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh; the medicine is applied directly to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiment should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.
